Jurtschitsch Pinot Noir Reserve 2007, Kamptal, Austria Ripe, red fruit, good tannin, fresh acidity, quite full bodied, it's long, balanced with a smooth finish. "90/100 It has a lovely pale colour and appealing Pinosity with rhubarb and beetroot aromas over some spice and vanilla, and a red berry fruitiness coming through. The oak is fairly obvious, but the whole, tobaccoey picture is appealing. In the mouth this is quite a substantial style; it is not at all heavy or ponderous, but there's a ripeness and textural weight and a chocolaty depth to the fruit. Spices and a nice sweet earthiness as well as good cherryish acidity show into quite a long finish in an impressive Pinot Noir." Tom Cavannan's Wine-pages)	£31.99	£24.99
